

Remember to Consider to Daycare in Your Planning

This advisory is to suggest to those who utilize daycares in the areas that are prone to flooding to check with the providers to see if they have plans for alternative care in case their facility is impacted.

Please keep this information in mind as you make your other flood and evacuation plans.