As of today, Monday, June 1, 2020, County offices fully opened to the public, no appointment necessary. Our County Offices are open with staff available Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. (with the exception of the Health Department, which is open 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.). PLEASE NOTE: In order to ensure we can process citizens effectively and efficiently while still maintaining our workforce, the buildings will lock at 4:00 p.m. We will continue to offer service to any citizens in the building at 4:00 p.m., and can assist on-line and telephonically until closing, however no new entries will be allowed after 4:00 p.m. daily. This change is in effect through at least Friday, June 12, 2020. A determination to maintain that status or resume regular opening hours will post prior to that date.

Additionally, we are still able to handle many service requests on-line, through the mail, or over the phone. If you would prefer to handle your business without having to come to our offices in Westmoreland, we are happy to assist you however and whenever possible remotely. Visit our online services page <https://www.pottcounty.org/494/Online-Services> to learn more!

Please continue to follow the guidelines issued by KDHE and the CDC, follow social distancing recommendations, wear a mask when out in public, and remember to check on those who are high risk.
