The Kansas Department of Health and Environment (KDHE) announced in a press release today that three new states have been added to the travel quarantine list; and six states have been removed. The states added are: Alabama, Arizona, and Arkansas. The states removed from the list are: Connecticut, Illinois, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, and Rhode Island. These changes are effective as of today, Wednesday, June 17, 2020. KDHE will review and/or update the list again on Wednesday, July 1, 2020. More information about travel during the pandemic may be found on the KDHE website, Coronavirus information page at: <https://www.coronavirus.kdheks.gov/175/Travel-Exposure-Related-Isolation-Quaran>

Pottawatomie County Health Order #6, posted on the County’s website and social media, here <https://www.pottcounty.org/DocumentCenter/View/3485/Public-Health-Order-6>; is effective through at least this Friday, June 19, 2020. Once more information is available, as to a new order, extension of the current order, and/or a timeline for phasing out of restrictions; that will be sent out as before. Normally these updates are sent out only on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, however the new information will be sent out as soon as it is available.
